Princess Charleston is a caring little girl who loves all of her friends on the land, and in the air and sea. In the second book in this series Princess Charleston sets up a birthday picnic for her friend on the beach. She quickly learns a valuable lesson about taking care of the environment. With the help and support of Kelly Thorvalson of the South Carolina Aquariums Sea Turtle Hospital, author Kelly Sheehy DeGroot introduces children to the dangers that humans can sometimes unintentionally present to oceanic wildlife. Princess Charleston is a lovable character that represents all children, whether they are young, old, boys, or girls, and when she is confronted with the realization that she has made a terrible mistake, she displays humility and a demeanor that sets a fine example for readers of all ages.
